H.R. 2346

OFFERED BY: MR. WOLF

AMENDMENT NO. 2: At the end of the bill (before the short title), insert the following:

RESTRICTIONS AND REQUIREMENTS REGARDING THE TRANSFER OR RELEASE OF GUANTANAMO
BAY DETAINEES INTO THE UNITED STATES

SEC. _____. (a) None of the funds made available in this or any other Act may be used to transfer or release prior to October 1, 2009, an individual who is detained, as of April 30, 2009, at Naval Station, Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, into the continental United States, Alaska, Hawaii, or the District of Columbia, for the purposes of detaining, releasing, or prosecuting such individual.

(b) Not later than August 22, 2009, the President shall submit to the Congress, in writing, a comprehensive plan regarding the proposed disposition of each individual who is detained, as of April 30, 2009, at Naval Station, Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, who is not covered under subsection (c). Such plan shall include, at a minimum, each of the following for each such individual:

(1) The findings of an analysis carried out by the President describing any risk to the national security of the United States or the residents of the United States that is posed by the transfer or release of the individual.

(2) A certification by the President that any risk described in paragraph (1) has been mitigated, together with a full description of the President's plan for such mitigation.

(3) A certification by the President that the President has submitted to the Governor and legislature of the State to which the President intends to transfer or release the individual and certification in writing (together with supporting documentation and justification) that the individual does not pose a security risk to the United States, and that the Governor and State legislature of that State consent to the transfer or release of the individual.

(4) A certification by the President that the transfer of the individual into the continental United States, Alaska, Hawaii, or the District of Columbia will not have an adverse affect on the United States Government's ability to further detain or prosecute such individual, in accordance with the laws of the United States, for any offenses the individual may have committed.

(c) None of the funds made available in this or any other Act may be used to transfer or release an individual detained at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, as of April 30, 2009, to the country of such individual's nationality or last habitual residence or to any other country other than the United States, unless the President submits to the Congress, in writing, at least 30 days prior to such transfer or release, the following information:

(1) The name of any individual to be transferred or released and the country to which such individual is to be transferred or released.

(2) An assessment of any risk to the national security of the United States or its citizens, including members of the Armed Forces of the United States, that is posed by such transfer or release and the actions taken to mitigate such risk.

(3) The terms of any agreement with another country for acceptance of such individual, including the amount of any financial assistance related to such agreement.

(d) Not later than August 22, 2009, the President shall submit to the Congress, in writing, a detailed analysis of the total estimated direct costs of closing the detention facility at Naval Station, Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, and any related costs, including the estimated costs of detention, prosecution, security, and incarceration in the United States of the individuals detained at such facility as of April 30, 2009, and the estimated costs of transferring or releasing such individuals to other countries.

(e) The plan required by subsection (b) and the information required by subsections (c) and (d) shall be submitted in unclassified form, but shall include a classified annex if necessary.
